DETAILED ACTION

Claim Objections

Claims 47 and 48 objected to because of the following informalities: Regarding claims 47 and 48, each claim is dependant from one another and neither are independent claims, for the purposes of the restriction below, Examiner will place them with the independent claim set depending from claim 37. Appropriate correction is required.

Election/Restrictions

Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

- I. Claims 34-36, drawn to an aspiration system consisting of a hand-piece and liquid supply unit, classified in class 604, subclass 93.01.
- II. Claims 37-46 (and 47-48?), 54-70, drawn to an aspiration system consisting of a hand-piece and motor pump unit, classified in class 604, subclass 35.
- III. Claims 49-53, drawn to an aspiration system consisting of a hand-piece, motor, and power supply batteries, classified in class 604, subclass 36.
- IV. Claims 71-73, drawn to an aspiration system consisting of a hand-piece, motor, and an impeller blade, classified in class 604, subclass 38.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

Inventions I and II, III, and IV are related as combination and subcombination.

Inventions in this relationship are distinct if it can be shown that (1) the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed for patentability, and (2) that the subcombination has utility by itself or in other combinations (MPEP § 806.05(c)). In the instant case, the combination as claimed does not require the particulars of the subcombination as claimed because the valve hand-piece and liquid supply system allows for aspiration and irrigation. The subcombinations of groups II-IV has separate utility such as the specific motor pump system, separate power batteries, and the specific motor impeller blade add different utility to the liquid supply means and allows for remote and independent fluid control.

The examiner has required restriction between combination and subcombination inventions. Where applicant elects a subcombination, and claims thereto are subsequently found allowable, any claim(s) depending from or otherwise requiring all the limitations of the allowable subcombination will be examined for patentability in accordance with 37 CFR 1.104. See MPEP § 821.04(a). Applicant is advised that if any claim presented in a continuation or divisional application is anticipated by, or includes all the limitations of, a claim that is allowable in the present application, such claim may be subject to provisional statutory and/or nonstatutory double patenting rejections over the claims of the instant application.

Because these inventions are independent or distinct for the reasons given above and there would be a serious burden on the examiner if restriction is not required because the inventions have acquired a separate status in the art in view of their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To reserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the inventions or species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the inventions or species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C.103(a) of the other invention.

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
